

"The most exciting development in snow business on either side of the Atlantic over the last 20 years...
Poised to become one of the world's most thrilling destinations."

PETER HARDY, LONDON TELEGRAPH FEBRUARY 18, 2008

Lift, snowcat, and helicopter ski from the village base, with North America's longest vertical and most abundant powder annually - accessed from your front door!

Join us to learn more about North America's biggest news in skiing and to preview the premiere ski in, ski out resort properties, for sale April 2008. Fully appointed resort condominiums, luxury village townhomes and spacious homes sites, of which a select number have private helicopter access for direct heliskiing convenience.

A one-of-a kind real estate and lifestyle opportunity at the inception of North America's newest and most unique four-season resort.
